Subscription Offers

If you wish to combine the "News" with any other educational journal, we will allow you to do so, for the price of the other publication alone. There are a few exceptions to this offer, but only a few.

If you wish to combine more than one educational magazine with the "News," add to their combined list price, 50 cents for the "News," then deduct 25 per cent of the total amount and send us the balance.

The following list of publications is suggested as being excellent for combination with the "News" at the price of the other publication alone, indicated with its name:

Primary Education	1.00
Popular Educator	1.00
Normal Instructor75
World's Events50
Primary Plans	1.00
N. E. Journal of Education.....	2.50
American Primary Teacher	1.00
Review of Reviews (Amer.)	3.00
Modern Priscilla50

We are offering the Review of Reviews, Woman's Home Companion and Success or Cosmopolitan, or almost any educational magazine published at One Dollar, together with the Sierra Educational News, for only $3.25, list price $5.50.

Business communications concerning this publication should for the present be sent to P. O. Box 321, Berkeley. Call upon us at the First National Bank Bldg.

A-to-Zed stands uniquely as the school for the individual. No fixed curriculum.—Special teachers for all preparatory and University subjects.

Mr. W. B. Murphy has gone from the principalship of the San Bernardino High School to the superintendency of the Tulare city schools. His successor at San Bernardino will be Dr. W. E. Andrews, who comes from the high school at Taylorville, Ill.

Berkeley, July 26.—The California Mathematics Teachers' Association, and the Physics and Chemistry Teachers' Association of the Pacific Coast held a joint meeting at the University of California this afternoon.

Benjamin Ide Wheeler was elected a member of the National Council of Education at the convention in Los Angeles, to fill the place left vacant by the death of Pres. William R. Harper of Chicago University.

Mark Twain, in a recent chapter of his autobiography, has a word concerning the "new" spelling which is worth repeating for the sake of perspective. Here is his contribution:

"In truth there is a certain sardonic propriety in preserving our orthography, since ours is a mongrel language which started with a child's vocabulary of three hundred words, and now consists of two hundred and twenty-five thousand, the whole lot with the exception of the original and legitimate three hundred, borrowed, stolen, smouched from every unwatched language under the sun, the spelling of each individual word of the lot locating the source of the theft and preserving the memory of the revered crime."

EDITORIAL.

The practical esteem in which school
teachers, especially those of the male sex,
are held, seems to vary between two extremes. The one is that of almost awful respect for his attainments and social standing: the other, a sort of pity for his earning, and consequently spending, capacity compared with that of business men of the same ability. We hesitate even to suggest that the two extremes are equally far from a just estimation. But it would be difficult to find a smoother blending of the two than that displayed by a South Main street saloonkeeper in Los Angeles during the recent convention, when he chalked on the blackboard before his door this inscription: "Hot Free Lunch, 11 to 2; Welcome N. E. A.!"

The "News" considers itself affiliated with the educational movements of this state sufficiently to feel a keen interest in all evidences of educational progress, and to wear a pleased smile whenever it meets with some gratifying illustration of its theory that California teachers are the peers of any teachers in the country. We have to report at present an especially suggestive idea which has recently taken shape here in Berkeley, in the establishment of the "A-to-Zed" school under the leadership of Miss Cora L. Williams, well known as a University mathematical coach. One of the new features of the enterprise lies in the fact that it is a school of individual tutoring rather than of class instruction; and while it will aim to meet the needs of students at all stages of progress, from the grammar school through the University, its special work will lie in the preparation of young men and women of more than average ability and ambition for advanced University work. The instructors include some of the best teachers in this part of the state and with its exceptionally favorable location in the University town, the prospects of the new school are bright. We can express no better wish for its future than that it may attain as great a measure of success as it deserves.

The University authorities have taken what is practically a new step in Summer School work this summer, in giving courses in Music. These have been interesting and profitable. We particularly wish to call attention to the work of Mrs. Sweesy, in her courses on public school music.

Many people have the idea that any good vocalist can teach public school music. The idea is erroneous. A vocal teacher, to attain results, gives individual lessons of twenty minutes or more, requiring the whole attention of the pupil. She requires practice between the lessons. The questions of discipline is negligible. Fatigue is watched for and prevented. With the teacher of public school music the conditions of success are far different. She must take a class of thirty or more, usually, hold their attention, interest the good singers, and also look after those who are tone-deaf, who have only monotones to express themselves. She must do this in a short space of time, and consequently must be trained to be able to handle exactly this work if she is to be effective.

Mrs. Sweesy is pre-eminently a leader in this work and is the most effective trainer of teachers for this work in the state. Her courses at the University are gaining approval from all sides. Lack of space in this issue prevents taking up the subject now, but in the September number we shall tell of the work she is doing through the state in cultivating appreciation of music and of its correct teaching.

We have long commended her work in Institutes and have advised County Superintendents to secure her services. We continue to do so.

NOTES.

Mrs. Maye Jackson, Superintendent of Schools in Napa County, has handed in her resignation. Mrs. Jackson is in very grave danger from cancer, and her recovery is hardly expected. Her sister-in-law, Miss Lena Jackson, has been appointed to fill the place for the remainder of the term.

On the evening of July 17 Mrs. L. V. Sweesy had as dinner guests at her home in Berkeley Mr. P. C. Hayden, editor and publisher of the "School Music Monthly," and Mrs. Anna Williams, Supervisor of Music in the public schools of Superior, Wis. The evening was spent in fruitful discussion of musical questions. Mrs. Sweesy's guests are spending a few weeks in this region while returning from the N. E. A. convention in Los Angeles.

The new treasurer of the N. E. A. is Acting President Chamberlain of Throop Polytechnic Institute. Mr. Chamberlain's friends are rightly proud that he has been selected for the signal honor of this election. In sharp contrast with some of the other elections, this was eminently a case of the office seeking the man. We are glad that Mr. Chamberlain is the Californian among the new officials.

Frank J. Reed has accepted the headship of the Science department of the Long Beach High School, after two years' successful work in the Oakdale High School. Mr. Reed is a graduate of Pomona College, class of 1904. He went to Oakdale after a year of graduate work in the University of California.

The Fiftieth Anniversary Convention of the National Educational Association, which met in Los Angeles from July 8th to 12th, was a very great success from almost every point of view. The commodious and convenient meeting places at and near the Auditorium, the luxurious headquarters at the Alexandria, the open-hearted welcome of Los Angeles, all contributed to the social success of a meeting which was intellectually notable for the high professional quality of its program, both as to the caliber of its speakers and the importance of its subjects.

Compared with the recent meeting of the Shriners, this was a small convention for Los Angeles. The estimated attendance was 8,500, and while the decorations gave the city something of a holiday air, the crowd would hardly have been noticed save on Fifth street from Spring to Olive. The comparatively small attendance was largely due to the refusal of the eastern railroads to grant a reduced fare, as heretofore. But the spirit of the meeting was much more important than the numbers, and this was optimistic and inspiring.

Over twenty states had separate headquarters—all save Arizona at the Alexandria. The California headquarters was also the general headquarters for those states otherwise unprovided. Arizona had headquarters at the Hollenbeck. These were all social rendezvous—the business headquarters was in the basement of the Auditorium.

Mr. E. G. Cooley of Chicago is the new president of the N. E. A., succeeding Dr. N. C. Schaeffer, who becomes first vice-president. Mr. Cooley's election was thoroughly acceptable to the organization, as his exceptional ability and independence in the Chicago schools have made him a prominent figure during the past few years.

The greatest struggle at the convention was over the election of trustees of the Association, who have the handling of its funds. Considerable feeling was aroused over the election of H. B. Brown of Valparaiso University (sic) to one of the vacancies. Without reflecting upon the business ability or integrity of Mr. Brown, it was felt by many that it was a great mistake to place in such an influential position a man whose professional standards were as low as those which Mr. Brown has wrought out in his school. One upon whose uprightness and soundness of judgment we have learned to rely characterized the incident as "a piece of dirty politics"; and while we have no personal knowledge of the matter, Dr. Gates generally knows what he is talking about, whether others do or not.

The next convention probably will be held in Cleveland. Commendable energy and enterprise were displayed by the Ohio delegation in converting everyone into a Cleveland "booster" by means of tags, badges and buttons.

All in all, we doubt whether anyone who attended the convention regrets it; and many are regretting too late that they were not there to participate in the good things of the meeting.

NOTICE.

A competitive examination for the appointment of teachers holding certificates, to teach in the public schools of the city and county of San Francisco, will be held under the civil service regulations of the board of education at the Mission High School, Eighteenth and Dolores streets, Wednesday morning, August 7th, 1907, at 9 o'clock.

Application blanks and book of general information may be had by applying at the office of the secretary of the board of education, southwest corner of Pine and Larkin streets.
